

Recognition Programs

There are several local and national-level programs which recognize businesses who strive to improve their transportation options programs. We've compiled a list of some of those programs to help get you started.

Best Workplaces for Commuters (bestworkplaces.org) is “an innovative membership program that provides qualified employers with national recognition and an elite designation for offering outstanding commuter benefits.”

Oregon Business's 100 Best Green Workplaces in Oregon (oregonbusiness.com/100best/) identifies workplaces with sustainable practices using employee surveys.

BRING's Re:Think Certification Program (bringrecycling.org) helps businesses be more resource-efficient by conducting on-site assessments.

The City of Eugene's Bold Steps Award Program (eugene-or.gov/508/Bold-Steps-Award-Program) recognizes businesses who take bold steps toward sustainability.

Travel Oregon's Bike Friendly Business Program (industry.traveloregon.com) is a recognition program for tourism-related businesses in Oregon.

The League of American Bicyclists' Bicycle Friendly Business Program (bikeleague.org/business) recognizes businesses who “encourage a more welcoming atmosphere for bicycling employees, customers and the community.”
